Americans to host 1st Annual Youth Hockey Camp in September

By Kevin Scott

GREAT FALLS, Mont., August 13, 2014 — Great Falls Americans Head Coach and General Manager, Jeff Heimel and the Great Falls Americans Junior A hockey team are excited to announce their 1st Annual Americans Youth Hockey Camp in September.

Heimel, the 2013-14 American West Hockey League Coach of the Year, will be directing this year's camp and he is committed to providing a quality hockey experience for youth skaters of all abilities. Campers will learn fundamental skating techniques with help from members of the 2014-15 Great Falls Americans hockey team.

The camp will offer two sessions on September 8-11, 2014 (Monday - Thursday) at the Great Falls Ice Plex with children under 12 attending from 5:15PM until 6:15PM and those over the age of 12 going from 6:30PM until 7:30PM each night. All positions are welcome.

The cost of the four-night camp is $99.00 for early registration or $125.00 at the door. The deadline for late registration is Monday, September 8th at 4:30PM at the Great Falls Ice Plex.

Registration includes an Americans T-shirt and game ticket. Register early to guarantee your slot and t-shirt.

For more information, you can check out the Great Falls Americans Facebook and Great Falls Americans Twitter pages and the Americans Team Website.

Campers that are interested in attending can view the Camp Flyer and can complete the online registration form below.
